

Working Connections and Seasonal Child Care - Changing the Family Income Limit for Eligibility

WHAT: Proposed changes to the family income limit for Working Connections Child Care and Seasonal Child Care subsidy programs. Click here to learn more.

DEL Rule Action	Projected Date (future dates are estimates that are subject to change)
File preproposal rule notice (CR-101 preproposal statement of inquiry)	January 12, 2010, filing number WSR 10-03-033
File proposed rules (CR-102 notice) with the Code Reviser	August 30, 2010, filing number WSR 10-18-064
Proposed rules published in the State Register	September 15, 2010
Emergency rules	Effective October 1, 2010 (filed September 24, 2010), filing number WSR 10-22-032
Proposed rules 20-day waiting period (see RCW 34.05.320)	Through October 6, 2010
Proposed rules public hearings	October 7 in Vancouver, Renton and Pasco simultaneously by video conference; October 9 in Yakima
Written comment period	Through October 10, 2010
DEL prepares written response to public comments (Concise Explanatory Statement)*	By mid-October 2010
DEL prepares and files the final rules (CR-103P rule making order) with the Code Reviser	Mid-October 2010
Final rules effective	Mid-November 2010, 31 days after the CR-103P is filed

*Under RCW 34.05.325, DEL responds to all comments on the proposed rules in a consolidated Concise Explanatory Statement. This statement is sent to everyone who gave input at a public hearing or in writing, or to anyone who asked to receive it. To request a copy of the Concise Explanatory Statement, e-mail Rules@del.wa.gov or write to: DEL Rules Coordinator, Department of Early Learning, PO Box 40970, Olympia, WA 98504-0970.